A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

1 AN ACT

2 relating to increasing the minimum amount of the local option

residence homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation by a taxing 4 unit from $5,000 to $30,000.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

6 SECTION 1. Section 11.13, Tax Code, is amended by amending

Subsection (n) and adding Subsection (n-1) to read as follows:

- 8 (n) In addition to any other exemptions provided by this
- 9 section, an individual is entitled to an exemption from taxation by 10 a taxing unit of a percentage of the appraised value of the individual's [his] residence homestead if the exemption is adopted by the governing body of the taxing unit before July 1 in the manner provided by law for official action by the body. If the percentage set by the taxing unit produces an exemption in a tax year of less than $$30,000 \ [$5,000]$ when applied to a particular residence

16 homestead, the individual is entitled to an exemption of $30,000

[$5,000] of the appraised value. The percentage adopted by the 18 taxing unit may not exceed 20 percent.

19 (n-1) Notwithstanding Subsection (n), if the governing body

20 of a taxing unit adopted the exemption under that subsection before

21 January 1, 2008, until the exemption is subsequently changed by the

22 governing body, the exemption continues in effect at the greater

23 of:

1 year; or

2 (2) the amount of $5,000 of the appraised value.

SECTION 2. This Act takes effect January 1, 2008, and applies only to ad valorem taxes imposed for a tax year beginning on or after that date, but only if the constitutional amendment proposed by the 80th Legislature, Regular Session, 2007, to increase the minimum amount of the local option residence homestead exemption from ad valorem taxation by a political subdivision from $5,000 to $30,000 is approved by the voters. If that amendment is not approved by the voters, this Act has no effect.
